WHERE LIFE MEETS STYLE

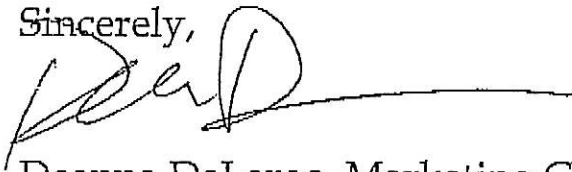

March 31, 2008

It is our pleasure to endorse and support the "I Luv Colorado Springs" board game currently being developed by Greccio Housing, as both an awareness and fundraising project.

The game board is an excellent opportunity to promote the fine businesses and cultural amenities which make Colorado Springs an amazing place to both live and visit. It also provides enormous exposure to a very large audience not only in the initial promotion of the game but every time the game is played.

We hope you will decide to participate, as the "I Luv Colorado Springs" board game will be a continuous advertising vehicle and community celebration for years to come!

Sincerely,

Deanna DeLarge, Marketing Coordinator
